Sound : In the 1920s, the development of electronic sound recording technologies made it practical to incorporate a soundtrack of speech, music and sound effects synchronized with the action on the screen.citation needed The resulting sound films were initially distinguished from the usual silent moving pictures or movies by calling them talking pictures or talkies.citation needed The revolution they wrought was swift. By 1930, silent film was practically extinct in the US and already being referred to as the old medium.citation needed

Theatrical releases : On January 22, 2020, the Chinese blockbuster Lost in Russia canceled its theatrical release and was sent to streaming platforms. It was made available to Watch for free, a move said to encourage people to Watch it and stay home. The next day, all theaters in China were closed. On January 31, Enter the Fat Dragon also premiered online.<sup>80</sup> Lost in Russia was streamed by 180 million accounts in the first three days after its release Chinas highest-grossing film and the highest-grossing non-English film ever was 2017s Wolf Warrior 2, which had sold a total of over 160 million tickets worldwide.<sup>81</sup> At the beginning of February, American films set to premiere in China over February and March were officially canceled.<sup>80</sup> Chinese media companies began making more films free online through January.<sup>82</sup> Asian markets also saw Chinese and Hong Kong film distributors cancel exports over the Lunar New Year holiday, including for the films Vanguard, Detective Chinatown 3, The Rescue, and Legend of Deification Taiwanese film Do You Love Me As I Love You had its Asian release moved to April.<sup>83</sup> Cinemas in Asian countries without public restrictions have been increasing hygiene measures, with the spokesperson for one chain saying that they added more hand sanitizer dispensers, performed temperature checks on staff and moviegoers, cleaned facilities more frequently, and displayed public health warnings on the movie screens.<sup>83</sup> The Lunar New Year holiday is a large market for film releases across Asia, but was stunted in 2020 as the outbreak began rapidly spreading over this period of time.<sup>83</sup>

On June 5, 2020, Governor of California Gavin Newsom announced that film and television production could resume in the state beginning June 12, provided that conditions permit and approval is received from a county's public health officials.<sup>170</sup> Newsom incorporated key guidelines from the task forces report.<sup>171</sup> The next day, a group of unions including the Directors Guild of America, the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, and SAG-AFTRA published a 36-page report detailing safety protocols agreed upon for union film and television productions, including regular testing of cast and crew members, closed sets, access zones, shooting limited to ten hour sessions, and all productions requiring an on-set health safety supervisor.<sup>172</sup><sup>173</sup> On February 9, 2021, it was announced that Blue Sky Studios, an animation studio which had been acquired by Disney during its purchase of 21st Century Fox, would be closed due to the economic impact of the pandemic on their business operations. The closure of Blue Sky also resulted in its cancellation of a film adaptation of Nimona, which was reported to be 75% complete.
